BAN DIEGO, Cal., May 2.-News is ved here that the Qaquis have once t them. Ex-Gov. Luis E. Torres, to is now General of the Northern and n Departments of Mexico, rert bays, has been making another m against the Ququis in the and Northern Sinaloa. He had army of over five hundred men, and in was to dispose of the Vaquis n at once and forever. dent Diaz selected Gen. Torres this work, because of his experiand supposed ability to accomforce composed of soldiers taken different regiments, accompanied a part of the National militia, while part of the National minus, while pursuit of the Yaquis in the Sierra Bacatel, were led into a long, deep, row defile in the Sierra de Bacatel, walls of the canon were almost spitous, rising to the height in some less of over 2,000 feet and covered a brush. The command was halted, iskirmishers pushed forward to distrain the same of the walls beat the brush as far up as possible abut results, and as the trail was rry defined in the sand in the bottof the canon, the Colonel in common of the canon, the Colonel in common from the canon had ben traversed with no in of fee, and the men were beginning breathe easier, when suddenly huge sees of rocks and boulders from the insarly 1,500 feet above came boundfrom wall to wall, down upon the amed-in column, crushing horses and its into shapeless heaps. Itser and higher rose the war cries well-armed Yaquis, who now bestiring volley after voiley directly of the struggling mass below, where was confusion. Horses deshed out the broken column, trampling the dead and women softens, menticed and screamed under the weight ursuit of the Yaquis in the Sierra

He wrote Bishop Wigger about the matter, and the Bishop wrote Rev. Dr. Smith denied the charges and said the trouble was due to a missinderstanding on the part of the sexton of his church.

Dean McNulty then promptly withdrew his charges, saying that he had simply reported what had been told him.

The matter was laid before the Eccle-iantical Court, and the Dean was found guilty of making charges he could not prove. He appealed to Archbishop Cor-igan with the result stated.
